

DeKalb Baptist Association

April 2021

A Message from our Associational Missions Strategist

From the Director of Missions.

Spring is here and VBS is right around the corner! DeKalb Baptist Association VBS training will be virtual this year and is now on both our website and our Facebook page. I want to thank our DBA VBS director Amy Simpson and Sherri Blevins for their help in putting this together. If you have any questions about the training, please contact the DBA office. We will also have a link to the Church Security Conference online on both our Website and Facebook page. I want to thank our police chief Michael Edmundson for leading this training event and Nazareth Baptist church for hosting the event.

In my Bible reading today in Luke 7, we read about this amazing site where this woman entered a religious leader's home and anointed the feet of the Lord Jesus. The woman had a questionable past and this religious leader was quick to point that out but Jesus didn't. He instead pointed out her future and said in verse 50, "your faith has saved you." Are there any greater words for our ears to hear?" Jesus told her to "go in peace" and she left in God's peace and the religious man was left in his pride. When Satan reminds you of your past, remember that God's grace has provided you a brand-new future.
